In all honesty, and no offence Robert, your post about 2014 was a guess what this is type of riddle thing that made little sense the way you presented it... guess one would have to be remote viewing to understand??? I don't read minds and you always seemed to leave part of the truth in your mind...like you couldn't tell us all of it. Even now when you say..."Remember My post about 2014 with President Putin and the Chinese President We Would have been toast If it wasn't for My spiritual Powers; Remote Viewing ETC. I have no idea what you are talking about??? It is what it is.

[I don't read minds and you always seemed to leave part of the truth in your mind].

Most of the time it's for your readers to inspire them to research what I have posted.

and other times the event can not be fully disclosed if we want to live because the operation might be put back in place.

"Remember My post about 2014 with President Putin and the Chinese President We Would have been toast If it wasn't for My spiritual Powers; Remote Viewing ETC.

In this post President Putin was shaking hands with the Chinese President.

go back and review what I said.

[I looked in to Putin's Eyes and Saw that There was a weapon of mass destruction in the United States that would Take out The United States and I searched in my Mind to see where it was at and in 7-8 seconds I found it].

On that Day President Putin Saved 100,000? of American and Canada Lives.

By His spirit telling Me about this Weapon.

And Our Heavenly Father blessing me with the Gift of Reading this Message.

and to have the disciplines and act swiftly and neutralize this threat.

If you read everything that was posted on that day.

it all knits together the action that were taken.

and it wasn't meant for full disclosure at that time.

and it can't be disclosed today by me.

Remote Viewing has many different definitions.

and When Spiritual Powers is combined with it.

This power lets one see the unseen and predicts the future.

To be able to read the body language and also to look into the Spirit of another person.

or a group's plan action etc this can also be done on objects.

To truly use this power one must not be afraid of being wrong in the review of the image.

It's a high risk operation to carry out.

It's a high risk operation to carry out.

and the outcome is very fluid until it's completed.

a Live action exercise that is very demanding .

The Operations I have done most only have a few parameters to deal with.

and the stakes have to be dealt with the same precision.

if its saving 1 person or 10 million its equal effort on my part.

I can only Thank My heavenly Father for trusting me with these jobs.

What is going on today is the End Game on Earth.

And the Data points involved are almost countless.

This has to be done with the least amount of collateral damage .

And in the cleanest way possible so as to not leave.

smothering ashes left that can rekindle Saint en's grip on humanity again.

My part in this action today is very small.

To be Successful We all must work together not be scared to fail.

For with Our Heavenly Father we will never Fail.

My Heavenly Father Lives in Me.

Let him also live in You.

Riddles are for magicians and don't grab my interest. I like things front and center. If I don't grab attention within the first sentence, I move on. Chatter boxes annoy me, not that you are one. I have a lot of distrust for ANY one who has politics and/or law in their namesake. On the other hand, I due what I can to walk the line. I have witnessed a lot of dirt on the road, and do not trust our system. It needs a complete overhaul, and I just don't see that happening anytime soon if ever. It's been trampled on, spit on, torn up in our faces, and all we get is a lousy journalistic picture, and told to turn the page or throw it in the recycle bin just to see it again and again and again without as much of a single bit of justice inforced. People like Nancy Pelosi, should be horse-whipped and at least fined if not resigned from a position of such high standards for disgracing ANY President of The United States of America.

I could go on all day, but I'm done. Thanks for the response.

It sounds to me like the Spirit of Python. I've read about these military projects seeking prophets, and people with the Holy Spirit and innocent ones with the gifts of knowing that they teach to use it to remote view and do all manner of spying for government top secret spy projects. Project Stargate and operation looking glass. The studies from these programs have helped mad scientists to figure out the mind... and see it isn't in the brain...they say those with the Holy Spirit have more power...that is what I read. But, as I read it, it became clear to me this was the power of dark forces like a seer, fortune teller, witch of Endor and oracle of Delphi type of spirit of python.

Pray you have not been deceived by this flattering spirit who comes so seductively to use God's people for their work and soon they are with legions within and more power than they had before...these same projects, according to their words have allowed them to tap into how the mind works and the findings have helped the likes of Klaus to bypass the Holy Spirit that tells the mind what to do...as what they call the second brain, which is the gut feeling guide of the Holy Spirit that tells a person yes or no...go or stop automatically when the person is allowing themselves to be guided by the power of the Holy Spirit. This is the Klaus new gene therapy to take away the 33.33% of the heart, mind and soul spirit...leaving only the body 33.33% and the mind brain 33.3% that can be remote controlled. Like a toy.

They have studied to try and over power and or harness the Holy Spirit which they cannot... that is why they have chosen to eliminate it all together with the mRNA gene therapy, but the people in their ignorance of these studies and flattered by their powers which are not theirs but of God...have allowed the Spirit of Python to enter and take over. Python is legions of many spirits. Magic is indeed what that is. Conjuring up spirits to do the bidding and that is a dangerous thing. But these ritual people Illuminati and secret societies who sponsor these programs... care not. They are fully aware that Solomon had the power to conjure the demons and they had to tell Him their secrets and who was over them and he was able to have them do his bidding. Through the secrets of Solomon we were shown the order of demons and Beelzebub and their chiefs over them and the fallen hierarchy. No one was ever able to do such things as Solomon. We are not to try and conjure evil up or the outcome can be awful. We are to call upon the Holy Spirit and the Lord who is more powerful and our source of help.

The spirit of python is subject to the authority of God. And it does not mix with good. It is a dividing spirit that flatters and infiltrates and creates division. It prophesies and sees like a fortune teller, it is a seer. Among other things it can carry with it many other spirits under it...like the spirit of Jezebel. It can carry any demonic spirit with it. Legions of them.

Well said! I found the spirit of python had coiled around my husband and I so tight that we didn't even realize it was there because it felt... comfortable. It made us think it was helping us, fooling us into believing we had all the protection we needed to keep evil out of our lives. "Don't worry your beautiful heads about this evil you feel because I will protect you." With this false sense of security we allowed even more evil into our home and lives. We believed so long as we had God in our hearts that we couldn't be plagued by evil spirits. This folly was all the spirit of python needed to set up shop. Once it was there it started trying to take over as our inner voice, replacing the Holy Spirit and silencing the voice of God. This spirit makes you listen to it instead of God and it's dang good at conning us as it likes to pretend it is God. I look at this spirit like I do cigarettes. Stay with me... When I was a teenager I thought it was cool to smoke and smoked even though it immediately tasted, smelled, and felt wrong, nasty, and gross. Smoking became an addiction that didn't do anything good for me short of making me not want to smoke WHILE I was smoking. I continued this absurd practice for 20 years before finally quitting for good. Why was it so hard to quit? Because I had made the stinky things a habit. Because I did this so long it became part of my identity- whether I liked it or not. Getting the spirits out of my life took intention and was/is just as hard as quitting smoking. Like cigarettes, spirits are seductive and will make you make excuses to allow them to stay. Like cigarettes, spirits make you feel good when you let them effect your world. But it's all a lie. Like cigarettes, spirits cause all sorts of unseen damage which only compounds with time. Keeping them out becomes the new habit, and it's one that I have to keep working at. The spirits are relentless and will always be looking for a way back in but can't get back in so long as I KEEP PRESSING into the Lord.

Amen. So many have been led to believe that once they accept the Lord as their savior, they are protected from all the evil. And that is not so. Demons can enter in and they do. Demons cause sickness, they cause fear, anger, jealousy, hatred. And fake words. Which are a category of flattery...one can begin to fool themselves. We must test the spirits all the time. I see this now more than ever. I always just let people be who they are and sometimes we have to draw a line or two. The Lord didn't say we were to be whipping posts and never stand up for ourselves and what was right. There are ways to take a stand without sinning. And then there are those who use the Bible as a weapon and that is not what is meant by taking a stand, that is not of God. Pray unceasing and know the Lord is with you so act like it (that's what I often tell myself and the Lord smiles). Or I envision him smiling. Tammi you are a joy. Smile. I love your realness and honesty. Your input is wise. God bless you. Amen.

The name spirit of python is new to me, the actions are not. I agree that all thoughts need to be measured according to the Scriptures. If we do not judge our own thoughts and actions according to God's Word, we leave the door open to deception. Once deception enters, because our hearts want to believe we are doing good, it is very difficult to be truly honest about your thoughts and actions. Holy Spirit is the only One who can open your eyes to the deception. Constantly we need to allow Holy Spirit to show us Truth. Even when it shows us that we need to repent and change directions on our thoughts and actions. (I am a choir member). But wisdom comes through experience. smile

I tried to respond to you minutes after you posted this and was locked out from logging in

I agree with your response .

Thanks for being so clear .

now this morning i can log on and what do i see.

all of this chatter below.

interesting did not the Son of God use .

Parables of Jesus.

Short stories used by Jesus of Nazareth to illustrate moral points and the kingdom of God.

are these like Riddles.

Riddles are Parables when they come from The Fathers Son are they Not.

Instead of being one with the Message.

Some just tear the Message Apart and also the Messenger.

And then they feel good when they have traveled so far away and croup-ted the message.

The message was President Putin is a Good man deep in his Spirit.

The military is an organization of man .

And a Spirit is a manifestation from our Father.

Only a deceiver of man would they to connect these together.

First off, as I have clearly stated numerous times, I am not a religious person. I also do not object to others being religious. We all make our own choices.

Yes, military is man made. I served my nation, as did most every man and a few women in my family tree. Would I do it again...? That's a question that I ponder to this day. I have a close friend who has facial scars from Agent Orange...I do not call myself a Viet-Nam veteran, as I never stepped foot on their soil. I am a Viet-Nam Era veteran. The more of the truth that comes from Dianne's magnitude of research, the more I am reminded of the good days we thought we were living when deep down we were just feeding the fire so to speak. I have no quarrel with a man who wants to rekindle his past, namely Putin.

My main quarrel with establishment is that they speak in a different tongue than the normal Joe, who finances their bank accounts and living habits. Our establishment has been flipped upside down and thinks we the people work for them instead of working for us.

Anyway, have a nice day, and btw, wasn't the Riddler a bad guy in Batman, along with the Joker. Personally, I was never a fan of any of that cartoon. I was a fan of Joe Palooka, and The Fabulous Fury Freak Brothers.

Good Day!

Even parables have a moral at the end of the story. What good is a parable if you don't tell it in its' entirety? Sounding brass and symbols, it makes no sense. We are at war and as watchmen what good does it do to say..."Something wicked this way comes, but through my spirits does it glorify me to know the truths that I place before the CIA spy programs as magic, believe I saved the world with remote gifts of magic and I place it before you in a riddle".

The Lord's watchman says, "A lion approaches at the north gate. Prepare the men for battle."

God is not the author of confusion. Parables are not the same as riddles. Parables are complete and have a moral to the story. Riddles are guessing games. There is no time to play, "I spy with my little eye", like children in the back seat playing games to rid their boredom on a long dull ride. In my opinion.

Why is there all this dialog in stead of understanding the message.
If your seeking for more information than what was already said.
Then the path is surely not for You to Travel.

Because the path, as you put it, are of two. One is wide and many there be that walk it, another path is narrow and few there be who find it. I fear you have been deceived by your own intellect into believing the spirit of Python is a gift from God... or, you have been deceived in thinking that others should follow riddles when the Bible says no such thing. To compare the corrupt Bush/Scherff CIA riddle program of Luciferian mind control experiments where they seek those who claim to have the power of the Holy Spirit as the most sought after participants is a clear warning sign that this is NOT OF GOD AT ALL. God doesn't operate in secret programs and secret societies who do one thing outwardly and have a secret hidden agenda inwardly. To be sucked into these programs and allow your mind to be hooked up to wires to prod or whatever they do to see how you are wired and how seducing spirits produce oracles...for that is what this study is... it is a craft, not a relationship with the Lord. This is not to say you do not have a relationship with the Lord, perhaps it is to show you what you must come out from and rebuke so the Lord can do a great work within you in service to others. You are a man of knowledge. So much so that you desire to share, but, for some reason hold back the entire message? Is this not what deception is? Have they so wired you in your thoughts that you are now of no use to the Lord? Or have they just told you what you can and cannot say? I do not know, all I know is that you appear to have a lot to share yet you do not communicate it but in pieces,...which then I ask...what good is that?

it wasn't something I wished to read.
now that I just scanned it.
I now Understand where you and your Group.
Came up with such a dialog to entertain your Mk ultra mind Set.
You can read just about every book ever written in just one Book.
A dictionary.
Its just that the story you assemble from a dictionary might not resemble a book.
Is it not the Same that you and your group did with my posts today.
The words I written did not expand into a riddle.
You brought this to the discussion.

Reading means reading.
